“Just treat people right.”

Continuing a legacy...

When Alfred Ciccotelli Sr. (Mr. C) first began selling imported Italian foods back in the 1950's, he didn't see himself as a true pioneer in the food industry. He was only trying to bring authentic Italian foods to the local corner grocery store. He had a vision, worked hard, and persevered, establishing what has become the most popular food category in America today.

Mr. C's humble beginnings can be traced back to working at his father's store in South Philadelphia. His teenage years were interrupted by World War II where he served in the Pacific theater rising to a Staff Sergeant in the US Army and honorable discharge in October 1946. When Mr. C returned home much had changed. During his time away, his father had passed and his family grocery store had closed. He started out with a couple of neighborhood jobs and was soon approached by a local Philadelphia wholesaler (circa 1950) that sold candy and tobacco to local stores. Within one year he was promoted to sales manager and started to introduce Italian specialties. After years of building the Italian specialty business, the owners wanted to cut back on Italian foods to stay with their main business of candy and tobacco.

So in 1962, Alanric Food Distributors was born. What he lacked in start up resources, he made up for in passion, sacrifice, vision and an unwavering belief that the American consumer would embrace Italian foods. He continued to pioneer his Italian specialty lines along his long-term vision to distribute his own premium brand of the finest foods from all regions of Italy. His brand would reflect the best of Italian culture, as he chose to only work with associates that would practice his motto “just treat people right”.

Mr. C's vision and pioneering spirit were carried into the business's second generation when his sons, Alfred Jr. and Rick joined the company. Alfred Jr's vision of a premium Italian brand migrating from the local corner grocery store into mainstream supermarkets was realized as the Cento brand achieved national distribution in all 50 states.

Through it all, Mr. C's legacy continues. Mr. C's son, Rick, and granddaughter, Gina, lead the company along with many family members who embrace the same work ethic and commitment to customer satisfaction that were instilled in them by Mr. C. Today, Cento is recognized as a leading premium quality brand and is preferred by the finest chefs across America.

THE PRIDE OF THE ITALIAN TRADITION

THE CENTO BRAND

We are proud to present our distinctive line of authentic Italian style products. Each Cento product is produced to our propriety specifications with the finest ingredients available. Cento brand tomato products are 100% vine ripened tomatoes, picked fresh and packed immediately to preserve their authentic Italian taste. Some manufacturers of tomato products use a mixture of reconstituted tomatoes, not Cento. We will only produce premium quality products. Cento's line includes certified San Marzano Italian Plum Tomatoes, which are the highest quality and are incredibly flavorful. Other tomato varieties include Cento's 28 oz and 35 oz Italian Plum Tomatoes. These items offer high quality tomatoes in a thick puree, providing a delicious flavor and thick sauce. Also look for our organic plum and crushed tomatoes. Cento's commitments to providing the best consumer value and to stay abreast of the food industry's rapid technological advances and has helped us become the premier Italian food distributor, importer and producer in the United States.

Bellino Premium Italian specialty foods represents the top quality ingredients for Italian cooking. Each product in the Bellino line is at the highest quality level in their respective categories from the best Extra Virgin Olive Oils to aged vinegars, marinated Roasted Peppers to the minced garlic. No matter the occasion or recipe, Bellino Premium Italian specialty foods provides that great taste and superior quality.

Pasta is the staple of all Italian cuisine. Anna Pasta is committed to providing the best consumer value, and is produced and packed in Italy using traditional methods of pasta production. The perfect blend of pure water and 100% durum wheat semolina creates a high quality nutritious product that is always consistent in taste, color and cooking time. Our proprietary recipe guarantees that Anna Pasta always cooks al dente, or firm in shape and rich in texture to aid in sauce absorption. From anellini to ziti, the Anna brand offers a complete pasta line of over thirty styles and cuts to satisfy your needs.”

Since 1892, loyal patrons have been enjoying unique, Italian style confections at Ferrara Cafe in the heart of New York's Little Italy. Cento is proud to provide many of these same quality Ferrara products. From its famous torrone nougat to pasta, Ferrara offers an extensive variety of Italian specialty foods. Ferrara's signature confectionery items include baba cakes, panettone, sfogliatelle, and cannoli cream. Each item generates an excellent Italian taste that is sure to satisfy. For over 100 years, the Ferrara brand has proudly maintained its reputation of superior quality and taste.

This upscale selection of Italian confections is produced using old world traditions paired with modern packaging. La Bella Valentina begins with the highest quality ingredients; candied fruits, almonds and rich Italian chocolate. La Bella, The Beautiful, packaging presents these handcrafted confections as the gifts they truly are, hand wrapped in a vibrant modern color palette, each finished with ribbon and a hand-tied bow.

Sweet delicacies have always played an important role in the culture and tradition of fine Italian cuisine. Italian desserts decorate tables at weddings, holiday parties, and many other family gatherings. The sweet pastries, cakes, cookies, and torrone symbolize the rich history of Italy and recipes for these delights have been passed down through the generations. The La Florentine brand offers a variety of delicious confections from an extensive assortment of torrone nougat candy, as well as flavorful panettone and panforte.

Little Gina's®

Little Gina's Pizzelle mimic the old world recipe of years past. The pizzelle was originally made in the Abruzzo region of south-central Italy. The name comes from the Italian word for pizze, meaning "round and flat." The pizzelle is especially popular during the Christmas and Easter seasons and are often found at Italian weddings, alongside other traditional pastries, such as cannoli and traditional Italian cookies.

Maurizio Artisan Pasta is produced using traditional Old World Italian methods. The dough is made from the finest durum semolina wheat and steadily kneaded to provide a smooth and elastic quality. This dough is then carefully pressed through traditional bronze dies resulting in a uniquely rough texture that allows for maximum sauce absorption. The newly shaped pasta is then slowly dried at low temperatures perfected by years of pasta artisans, resulting in the formation of the characteristic outer surface crust. After being carefully cooled to a stable temperature, the final high-quality artisan Pasta is immediately packaged to prevent loss of moisture and preserve the treasured qualities that make this traditional pasta widely regarded as the best.

Maurizio®

Il Pastaio Artigianale

Maurizio Artisan Pasta is produced using traditional Old World Italian methods. The dough is made from the finest durum semolina wheat and steadily kneaded to provide a smooth and elastic quality. This dough is then carefully pressed through traditional bronze dies resulting in a uniquely rough texture that allows for maximum sauce absorption. The newly shaped pasta is then slowly dried at low temperatures perfected by years of pasta artisans, resulting in the formation of the characteristic outer surface crust. After being carefully cooled to a stable temperature, the final high-quality artisan pasta is immediately packaged to prevent loss of moisture and preserve the treasured qualities that make this traditional pasta widely regarded as the best.

Although it may be paired with a variety of sauces, the large size of the pasta makes it ideal for a seafood based sauce. Today, paccheri is consumed throughout Italy, but is most popular in the Campania region.

PRODOTTI ITALIANI DI QUALITÀ

71403-03312 SPAGHETTI

71403-03315 PERCIATELLI

This thick, hearty pasta is pierced through the center. Perciatelli is usually served with creamy sauces, or lighter tomato sauces.

SPAGHETTINI 71403-03311

CAPELLINI 71403-03309

The thin, delicate strands of capellini are great as a side dish or entrée. Due to its size, Ferrara Capellini is perfect for the lighter, thinner sauces.
